STAKES FOR MORRIS PARK.

The Westchester Racing Association has opened twenty-six stakes to be run at Morris Park this year. Twenty are for the spring meeting and six for the autumn meeting. In general they are the old established fixtures with which horseowners are familiar, but in line with the general trend in eastern turf affairs some valuable additions and improvements are noteworthy.

The added money to the Metropolitan Handicap has been raised from $3,000 to $5,000, a generous addition that will go far to increase the importance of the Metropolitan as the forerunner of the Brooklyn and Suburban Handicaps.

Last year, The Municipal Handicap, one and three-quarters miles, won by Ben Holladay, was a guaranteed stakes of the value of $3,500. This year, with $2,500 added to a liberal subscription it will be worth far more to the winner. As a mate to this long distance race, the Morris Park Handicap is offered for the first time. It is over the conventional cup distance of two and a quarter miles. The $3,000 added money will serve to make it an alluring prize to the owners of good horses fit to go the route.

Another new feature is the Grand National Steeplechase with $5,000 added. It is a new thing for the jumpers in this country to have such richness offered. The crumbs off the racing table have heretofore been their portion, but here is a whole loaf at once. It is an inducement that will cause many fair class horses to be tried out over the sticks to ascertain what may be their promise at the jumping game.

The list offered is as follows:

For 2-year-olds; spring meeting:
Gaiety Stakes, fillies, $750 added, 1-2 mile.
Bouquet Stakes, selling, $1,000 added, 5-8 mile.
Laureate Stakes, $1,200 added, 5-8 mile.

Champagne Stakes, $1,500 added, 7-8 mile.
White Plains Handicap, $2,000 added, Eclipse Course.

Baychester Stakes, $1,000 added, 1 mile.
Van Nest Stakes, selling, $750 added, 6 1-2 furlongs.

For 3-year-olds; autumn meeting:

International Steeplechase, $750 added, about 2 1-4 miles.
Grand National Steeplechase, $5,000 added, about 2 1-4 miles.
Entries close February 7 to Clerk of the Course, H. G. Crickmore, 173 Fifth Avenue, New York, and entry blanks can be obtained at this office.

WASHINGTON'S STAKES.

All doubt as to a spring meeting over the Bannings track at Washington has been dispelled by the formal announcement of the following list of stakes, which close for entries February 7, and for which entry blanks can be had at this office.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

A special from Lexington to the Louisville Courier-Journal gives the following in relation to the crop of Kentucky yearlings that will be for sale this year.

"The leading thoroughbred breeding establishments hereabouts will have for sale this summer about 700 youngsters representing the 1898 produce of the studs. Of these probably one-half will be sold in the east and the other half in the west. Just now breeders are busy watching these youngsters in order that they may make up their minds as to which are best suited to the two markets. Following are some of the breeders who will sell in the east: Col. Milton Young, McGrathiana; Messrs. Clay & Woodford, Runnymede; Maj. T. J. Carson, Dixiana; Maj. B. G. Thomas, Hiraville; Messrs. Applegate & McMeekin, Oakwood; J. N. Camden, Jr., Hartland; J. B. Haggis, Elmendorf; H. P. Headley, La Belle and Beaumont, and Mrs. John M. Clay, of Ashland Stud.

"The produce of August Belmont's Nursery Stud and of Mr. Keene's Castleton Stud will be sold privately and used exclusively by the owners for racing.

"The American Horse Exchange of New York will sell the majority of the yearlings, although William Easton, of New York, and Woodard & Shanklin, of this city, will handle a portion of them. At McGrathiana there are about 150 head, but many of them will be sold privately, and only about sixty-five head will be sent to the eastern market. Clay & Woodford will send about fifty head and Maj. Carson about thirty-five. These have been decided upon, but the other breeders have not yet made up their minds as to the numbers or market. The named breeders will sell with the American Horse Exchange some time near the 1st of June. Out of this large number of Kentucky-bred youngsters ought to come performers in 1901 and 1902 that will be worthy of their high breeding.

"The crop is an unusually large one, and it is said that the individuality of the colts is remarkable, although this has been the hardest winter on horses known in this section in years. The crop from Oakwood will be divided as between the east and west, and nearly all the breeders will reserve a few for the western market. However, they seem confident that the best market this season for yearling thoroughbreds will be at the tracks where the best racing meetings are being held."

The contest for the Gentlemen's Cup, won last week at Ingleside by Walter Hobart, has left any amount of heart-burning and recrimination in its wake. Thursday's Examiner says of the case:

"Walter Hobart, the young millionaire, declares that he has been placed before the public in a wrong light in connection with the methods he employed to secure the mount on Dr. Sheppard in to-day's gentlemen's race at Ingleside. Said Mr. Hobart yesterday: 'It has been published that I spent money in order to thwart Mr. Skinner's plans for riding Dr. Sheppard. I did nothing of the kind. The majority of those eligible to ride in the gentlemen's race voted for a change of conditions by which each of us was to secure his own horse. Naturally I wanted to get the best available. I tried for several and was refused. Then I went to Mr. Foster, who owns Dr. Sheppard. He assured me that he had not promised the horse to anybody, and I made arrangements then and there for having the mount on Dr. Sheppard. Surely there was nothing unsportsmanlike about that.'

"Owner Foster bears out Mr. Hobart. He said: 'I certainly did not promise the horse to Mr. Skinner. When Mr. Hobart came to me he asked me if I had promised Dr. Sheppard to anybody and I told him I had not. If I had given my word to Skinner that he should ride Dr. Sheppard, I certainly would have kept faith with him.'

"Skinner still stoutly asserts that Foster promised to let him have Dr. Sheppard. It is therefore a question of veracity between Foster and Skinner."

Barney Schreiber has made twenty entries to the St. Louis Derby of 1902, which closes February 1. The entries will be the produce of this year and are as follows:

A Sunday night dispatch from Detroit says: "Walter O. Farmer and George M. Hendrie returned today from a trip to Fort Erie, Toronto, Hamilton and Montreal. Mr. Farmer said there was no truth in the report that the Fort Erie track had passed into the hands of W. M. Thompson, of Gloucester fame. The Highland Park Club, he said, had leased the property for a term of years and would give its first meeting in July. The differences existing between the club and officials and Windsor track owners have been patched up, and two meetings will be given at the across-the-river track. The stake events and entries for the spring meetings will be given out during the week."

LOUISVILLE'S FINE PATRONAGE.

The eight stakes of the New Louisville Jockey Club that closed January 18 filled exceedingly well, with 510 entries as against 495 last year, distributed as follows:

Debutante Stakes, 2-year-old fillies, 1-2 mile, 92 entries.
Wenonah Stakes, 2-year-old colts, 4 1-2 furlongs, 91 entries.

Frank Fehr Stakes, 3-year-olds and upward, selling, one mile, 51 entries.
Louisville Handicap, 3-year-olds and upward, 1 1-16 miles, 35 entries.

Start fair. Won easily. Brown Prince had no trouble about winning off by himself, showing marked improvement. Eppinger made up much ground in the stretch. Milkarth did all he is capable of. Gratify's performance was dismal. Still his legs are very infirm and the hard track may have stopped him. Simmons showed some speed. It was too short for Billy McCloskey.

Start straggling. Won easily. Strongoli beat the gate, still his speed and improvement was surprising. He is a bad actor at the post and generally off poorly. Lavator was off badly and made up a lot of ground, but his race was not to the mark and should not be considered. Clarando ran an honest race. Dunpraise wants a longer route. Lothian will do to keep on the right side. Crossmolina's race was bad. Throw it out. Racery is of little account.

Winner—B. h. by Florist—Becky B.
Start fair. Won easily. Dunois is in excellent form, was suited by the firm going and had an easy time. Whitcomb is fresh and good and ran an excellent race. San Venado was sore going to the post, but closed ground very fast after he had warmed out of his stiffness. Recreation was cut out and unlucky. Cromwell ran an honest race. He is apparently retrograding. It was too fast for Ketcham.
Scratched—First Call, 109.

Start fair. Won handily. O'Connell beat the gate and never gave the others a chance. He was a good horse today and vigorously handled. Etta H. ran a fine race. She was a bit short and the race will improve her. Cyril ran his race. The speed in front was beyond his measure.
The same applies to Highland Ball. Midlight was short and should be watched closely. Sly was short on speed today.
